Meet Your Board Member... Ronald McNickle

Ronald McNickle has been on the Twin Valley Board of Directors for the past six years. Ronald likes to devote his time to devote to the cooperative in a positive manner.

Ronald has lived in Labette County since the age of six. He has lived just west of Mound Valley since 1963.

Ronald has been married to his wife, Carolyn, for 48 years. They have two daughters, Wanda McGuire and Teri Pearce, and one son Gary McNickle. They have six grandchildren, Sara, Josh, Nick, Nathan, Hannah and Dillon, and one great granddaughter, Bethany.

Ronald retired from Kansas State University Research Center and now works part-time at the South Coffeyville Stockyards and the Coffeyville Livestock Market.

In his spare time, he enjoys raising cattle and goats. He is also active in the Mound Valley United Methodist Church and the Parsons Gideon Camp.

Correction From January

In last months issue of Kansas Country Living magazine there was an error in the article about our 2006 Annual Meeting. For District 2, Ronald McNickle will be up for re-election not Larry D. Hubbell.

Your current Director's that are up for re-election are:

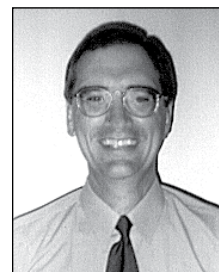

District 1: Bryan W. Coover

District 2: Ronald McNickle

District 3: Robert E. Webster

Director Nomination Procedure

This information is found in your By-Laws Of The Twin Valley Electric Cooperative, Inc., on pages 11 and 12 section 4.05. You now can find this online at <http://www.twinvalleyelectric.coop>. You can find the By-Laws under member services.

The Board shall appoint a nominating committee not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days before any meeting of members, at which directors are to be elected. The committee shall consist of not less than five nor more than 13 members who shall be selected from different areas of the cooperative. No member of the board may serve on this committee.

The nominating committee shall prepare and post a list of nominations for directors at the office of the cooperative at least 20 days before the meeting. The Secretary shall mail a statement of the number of directors to be elected and the names and addresses of the candidates nominated by the committee at least 10 days before the date of the meeting.

Nominations may be made from the floor at any meeting of the members at which Directors are to be elected. No member may nominate more than one candidate.

Fifteen or more members acting together may make other nominations by petition. The Secretary shall post the nominations at the same place where the list of nominations made by the committee is posted. Nominations made by petition, which are received at least five days before the meeting shall be included on the official ballot. Later nominations by petition shall be treated as nominations from the floor.
